Dear Sir:

Mrs. Rose C. Quinney, who states that she has previously been employed by your firm, has applied to us for a position. I should appreciate any word that you are willing to give me regarding her capacity while in your employ, together with such other information regarding her personality as might seem pertinent to you.

Thanking you in anticipation of your courtesy, I beg to subscribe myself,

Very truly yours,

Sydney P. Noe

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Mrs. Quinney was employed by us in our Collection Department for several years. We found her very competent and reliable in her work and regret very much when she left us to take a better position. We are very glad to have this opportunity to express our appreciation of the good work which she did for us.

Attn. Mr. Sydney P. Noe

Gentlemen:

Your letter of the 17th is received inquiring about Mrs. Rose C. Quinney.

Mrs. Quinney worked for us a great many years and we have no hesitation in saying that she is fully qualified to work in the Cost Department. She has had a great deal of experience in this kind of work and is accurate, conscientious and careful. She has a good personality and works well with other people.

If you give her the position I feel sure that she will fully satisfy you.

Yours very truly,

J. A. Pearson

Treasurer.

Gentlemen:

Mrs. Rose Quinney, who had charge of our Credit Department under my supervision, proved herself to be capable and willing, and we regretted exceedingly when reducing our staff to have to dispense with her services. She came to us highly recommended, and we believe that she will ably fulfill any position she may be given.

Very truly yours,

Harcourt, Brace and Company,

A. H. Gehrs
